

FOOD, GLORIOUS FOOD

Your first food stop of the day is in Crescent, Iowa.

Henry's Diner -Nothin' Finer- Pick from the locally favorite menu and add coffee, tea, or another beverage to begin.

Then scoot up north to Honey Creek, Iowa.

Home to two destinations with food creations and critters. Honey Creek Creamery, will fill your senses with fragrant and delicious goat cheeses. Ask to meet the goats that deliver this goodness and see the process of making cheese.

Does and Divas Dairy is home to goats and sheep and is just down the road. So many cheeses and other products are yours to browse, sample, and buy.

Next, head to Neola, Iowa.

After greeting those four legged girls at Does and Divas Dairy, you'll work up an appetite. Buck Snort may seem like a funny name for a restaurant, but the food is great and the atmosphere is memorable. Anyone in the mood for the Swamp Donkey burger?

Then end your food adventure at Minden, Iowa.

Breezy Hills Vineyard may be just the relaxing end to a full day that you need. They feature a tasting room and gift shop with all sorts of accessories and fun mementos of your day.
